Do We Need a Marriage License?

In order to be legally married in the State of Missouri, a marriage license must be obtained prior to the ceremony. The marriage license is valid in any county in Missouri, but is valid ONLY in Missouri.

How do we apply for a Marriage License?

The bride and groom must appear in person (at the same time) at the Recorder of Deeds Office, Lawrence K. Roos County Government Building, Fourth Floor, 41 South Central Ave., Clayton, MO 63105.

The marriage license section is open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. on Monday, Wednesday and Friday; and from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Tuesday and Thursday.

What information is required to apply for a Marriage License?

Both parties must be at least 18 years of age. Each applicant must present some form of government issued (federal or state) identification (e.g. valid driver's license, a state identification card, a passport, etc.). Also, each applicant must provide proof of a valid social security number if the government issued identification does not contain a social security number. If an applicant does not have a social security number, a statement must be signed stating that fact. Blood tests are NOT required to apply for a marriage license.

How much does a Marriage License cost?

The fee for a marriage license application is $47. Payment is accepted in CASH ONLY. The fee is non-refundable. A keepsake certificate may be purchased for $1.

How soon may we be married after we apply for a Marriage License?

Couples apply and obtain their marriage license on the same day as long as they are getting married within 30 days of the application date. The marriage ceremony must occur within 30 days from the date of issuance or the license is void.

How do we arrange a civil ceremony?

Saint Louis County Circuit Court judges perform civil marriage ceremonies every Wednesday (excluding holidays), starting at 1 p.m. in the Saint Louis County Courts Building, 7900 Carondelet Ave. (building next to the Lawrence K. Roos County Government Building). Applicants must arrive by noon with the marriage license and two witnesses. Also, an appointment can be made directly with a municipal judge to perform a civil marriage ceremony. Contact your municipality for more information.

How does the bride change her name after the marriage ceremony?

A certified copy of the marriage license should be ordered when applying for the marriage license if the bride plans to change her name after the marriage ceremony. The bride needs to present (but not surrender) the certified copy at a Social Security office and a Missouri Department of Revenue (motor vehicle and driver licensing) office.
